Task Overview | My Work | Submission | Feedback | Rubric

What You Will Do

You will create a budget for a small business that sells fruits. You will list the expected income, all expenses, calculate the profit and decide how the profit will be used.

Real-life Connection

Every business needs a budget to avoid loss and make smart decisions. This skill helps you plan, save and become financially responsible.

Your Tasks

1. List the start-up costs for the fruit business.
2. List the expected income for the week.
3. List all expenses for the week.
4. Calculate total income, total expenses and profit.
5. Decide how the profit will be used (e.g. save, re-invest, family support).
6. Write a short reflection on what you learnt.

Tips

- Use the table provided in the task brief.
- Be realistic with your figures.
- Show your working clearly.
- Check your calculations before submitting.

Resources to Help You

- Budgeting Video (8:45 min)
- Example Budget (PDF)
- Budget Template (Excel)

Success Criteria

- All parts of the budget are completed.
- Calculations are correct.
- Figures are realistic and neatly presented.
- Reflection shows understanding of budgeting.

Next Steps

Complete your work and submit before the due date.

1. Complete Your Work — Use the brief and template to complete the task.
2. Submit Your Work — Upload your file or take a clear photo.
3. Get Feedback — Your tutor will review and provide feedback.

Operations on Whole Numbers Worksheet

Feedback from Mrs. Bolanle A.
Mathematics Tutor
18 Apr 2026
72%

What You Did Well

- You added and subtracted whole numbers accurately.
- You showed good understanding of place value in most questions.
- You attempted all questions and showed good effort.

What To Improve

- Check your place value alignment in subtraction questions.
- Show your working steps clearly for multi-step problems.
- Review number patterns before solving estimation questions.

Common Error Identified

Place value confusion in subtraction. Some answers were off by tens or hundreds due to incorrect borrowing.

Tutor Comment

Good work, Adeolat! You understand the basics well. Focus on aligning numbers by place value and showing each step. Keep it up! ✨

Next Step

Revise place value and subtraction with borrowing. Redo questions 4–6 from this worksheet and attempt the follow-up quiz to strengthen your skills.

Yes Ma, the subject is who or what the sentence is about.
👍 1

Mrs. Funke A. Tutor 4:33 PM
Exactly! Well done Chinedu 👏
Let's look at more examples.
♥ 3

Zainab I. 4:34 PM
Can a pronoun be the subject too?

Mrs. Funke A. 4:35 PM
Yes, pronouns can be subjects.
Example: "They won the match."
Here, 'They' is the subject.

RorlaM 10:15 AM
Please I don't understand nouns very well. Can you explain with examples?

Mr. Tunde (English Language Tutor) 10:16 AM

Sure, Adeola! I'll be happy to explain.

A noun is a naming word. It is the name of a person, place, thing or idea.

Examples:

- Person: teacher, Adeola, doctor
- Place: Lagos, school, Nigeria
- Thing: book, pen, chair
- Idea: honesty, love, hope

In a sentence, nouns can be the subject or object.

Examples:

- The teacher is kind. (teacher = subject)
- I saw the book on the table. (book = object)

10:18 AM
Thank you sir! That makes sense now.
