Topic: Sentence Types

Lesson Objective: By the end of the lesson, learners should be able to identify and use simple, compound and complex sentences correctly.

Time: 6:00 PM - 7:00 PM | Duration: 43:21 / 60 min | 25 Learners Online

Presentation / Whiteboard

SENTENCE TYPES

There are four main types of sentences:

1. Simple Sentence – has one independent clause.
   Example: The boy runs.
2. Compound Sentence – has two independent clauses joined by a conjunction.
   Example: The boy runs, and the girl walks.
3. Complex Sentence – has one independent clause and at least one dependent clause.
   Example: Because it rained, we stayed indoors.
4. Compound-Complex Sentence – has two or more independent clauses and at least one dependent clause.
   Example: The boy runs, and the girl walks because it is a sunny day.

Examples:

1) Simple: I like reading.
2) Compound: I like reading, but my brother likes football.
3) Complex: When I study hard, I do well in exams.
4) Compound-Complex: I will go to the library, and I will read my book because I want to improve.

Assessment Best Practice

- Auto-marked quizzes and tests are entered in the Gradebook immediately after the due date.
- Essays, uploads, and portfolio-linked assessments require teacher review before scores are approved.
- Use Mixed scoring to combine auto-scored items with teacher-reviewed items in the same assessment.
- Review analytics after each assessment to identify learning gaps and plan targeted interventions.

Q. Identify the part of speech of the underlined word.
She quickly finished her homework before dinner.

- A. Noun
- B. Verb
- C. Adjective
- D. Adverb

Correct Answer: D. Adverb

Explanation: "Quickly" describes how she finished her homework. It tells us the manner, so it is an adverb.

Misconception Tag: Verb vs Adverb

Good morning, Mr. Tunde.
How is Maryam doing in Mathematics? We're concerned about her recent test score.
10:10 AM

Good morning, Hajiia. Maryam is a bright and focused learner. She understands the concepts well but needs more practice with word problems and accuracy.

I've attached her latest worksheet with feedback.
